

Ask TCI Any Question™

Ask TCI Any Question™ (ATAQ) is a specialized information service designed to provide unpublished, difficult-to-obtain, non-confidential information while protecting a client's anonymity. The service provides clients with a block of 60 consulting hours that can be used for a wide range of topics. ATAQ is designed to go beyond database searches and uses a combination of research and personal interviews to obtain the most complete and accurate information with a quick turn around.

TCI, a global technology and business consulting firm, provides analysis-driven consulting. Our expertise is in technology assessments, in- and out-licensing, business intelligence, market research, mergers & acquisitions, and other technology and business needs.

Founded in 1979, TCI serves the pharmaceutical, drug delivery, OTC, nutrition, personal care, packaging, and advanced materials industries.

We have global offices located in

Examples of ATAQ requests include, but are not limited to:

- Competitor product information, research projects, and positioning
- New technology development monitoring
- Interviews with industry experts
- Identification of existing regulatory status for APIs and marketed products
- Current development status of pharmaceutical compounds

To access the capabilities of TCI's professionals through ATAQ, a client:

- 1 Submits a request to TCI via phone or email.
- 2 Receives confirmation of receipt of request and within 48 hours, either receives the completed report or an estimated delivery date.
- 3 Will be notified with a time estimate if their request will take more than 16 hours to complete. If this is the case, clients will have the option to move forward with the original request, modify, or terminate the request.
